At 6:00 pm

With the Craft Fair quickly approaching on November 11th (9:00 am – 4:00 pm), we will continue to discuss and plan the items needed for the annual Basket drawing as well as other preparations for the Craft Fair. We are still collecting items for the Basket Drawing. Please continue to donate any items that you can. In the future we will also be baking over 100 pies to sell at the craft fair. We will also be asking members to donate goodies for the bake sale. Please see Cathy Breda if you have any questions.

Operation Christmas Child

Christmas boxes have been ordered. The Packing party is scheduled for Sunday, October 23rd. It will be a salad and pizza party donated by the Marty's. We will also have a power point presentation of some of the stories regarding these boxes. The sign-up sheet will be on the floating bulletin board .

The money made from the basket ministries pays for the shipping costs as well as the course of "The greatest Journey" which teaches about Jesus Christ along with their very own Bibles. We have a great start on this expense already and with God's help we will make up the rest at the basket ministry at the craft fair.

The Blessing Service for these boxes will be held on November 5th.

These baskets will be started soon and we appreciate the volunteers who help us put them together, make the tags, wrap and make the beautiful bows. Many thanks go out to Nancy Abraham, Diane Boggs, and Sandy Ross. They are the "basket angels".

A Prayer for Patriot Day (September 11)

Posted by Joshua J Masters on September 11, 2012

Father God,

You are our strength in times of trouble.¹ Today we are reminded of a wound in our nation's history. We are grateful for the soldiers, fire fighters and police officers who voluntarily placed themselves in harm's way to protect us—so many of our brave first responders were lost. This day is also filled with the remembrance of innocent victims who've lost their lives.

We know you are a God who sees our pain and comes close to the brokenhearted.² Unlike many of our nation's solemn days, we still remember the twisted metal and smoke rising into the horizon over New York, the Pentagon and Pennsylvania. For many, it is still a day of loss and suffering.

We remember the fear and uncertainty we felt that September morning. But like the Americans at Fort McHenry in 1814, we also remember the hope you gave us as the smoke began to clear and we saw our star-spangled banner, still waving, unfurled over the battlefield our enemies meant to be our place of defeat. Lord, encourage and strengthen us on this day.

I confess there are some of us who are still angry—some still live in fear. Send the Holy Spirit to comfort us, and give us the strength to comfort one another.³ Remind us that we have victory in Christ, and that we can find rest in you:

When you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
Have no fear of sudden disaster
or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked,
for the LORD will be your confidence
and will keep your foot from being snared.
(Proverbs 3:24-26)

I pray a blessing of peace on the families who mourn the loss of their loved ones—whether a flight passenger, office worker, fire fighter, police officer or member of the military, each one of the people lost that morning had friends and families who suffer in silence today. May the Comforter⁴ be sent to their side, and may our communities rise up to meet their needs. Protect our hearts and strengthen our resolve.

AMEN.
